Portions of Handel's Messiah & Mendelssohn's Elijah

Emma Morrison, (12), a Whatcom MS student, and her family, (Mitchell, a teacher in Ferndale, Jill (Smith) a physical therapist in Bellingham and Lynden, and Owen (9)) have been on an unexpected journey since November when she was diagnosed with severe Aplastic Anemia which caused her bone marrow to stop functioning properly.

Emma has undergone numerous platelet and blood transfusions and just before Christmas a bone marrow transplant donated by Owen.

Due to infection risks, Emma will remain out of school until next year as long as everything goes well.

Join us with a contribution as we seek to encourage this family.
